

History

Husch has seen several generations of family over the years and now the fourth generation is running through the winery. At age 14, Morgan Joseph (Mojo) isn't quite a full-fledged winemaker, but he is a favorite with the tasting room staff and visitors. It is no surprise that the Mojo Red has developed a loyal following; high quality estate-bottled wine from a local producer at an affordable price is a growing rarity these days.

Winemaking

The Mojo Red is as much fun to make as it is to drink. With no fixed rules, we blend until it tastes just right! The 2015 release is a blend containing grapes from all of our top red programs. Approach this wine with high expectations; despite the price, this wine is hand-crafted in small batches, seeing the same love and attention that all our wines receive.

Tasting Notes

The deep garnet color, diverse range of aromas and massive fruit flavors make this wine a great everyday red. This wine pairs well with life, and any of your favorite dishes. Best enjoyed in its youth.
